Invitation Letter from KASBP Symposium

Korean American Society in Biotech and Pharmaceuticals (KASBP) cordially invites all members and friends to the 2018 KASBP Spring Symposium, Co-hosted by Yuhan Corporation, Hanmi Pharmaceuticals, and GC Pharma in Boston from June 1 to June 2, 2018, focused on Finding a Target in Drug Discovery and Development.

For the upcoming event, the symposium organizing committee is delighted to announce the recruitment of outstanding speakers and panelists, including our distinguished keynote speaker, Dr. Peter J. Park, a world-renowned Computational Genomics researcher and Professor of Biomedical Informatics from Harvard Medical School. This will be a great opportunity to learn how computational and statistical analyses of genomics data are helping to identify rare mutations in genome and to foster new discovery.

We are also fortunate to have seven distinguished speakers from both academia and industry who will share their experience and expertise regarding cutting-edge science, process from the early discovery research to the clinical trials and biopharmaceuticals. We will hear about the drug discovery challenges for Antibody-Drug Conjugate (ADC), the evolution of medicinal chemistry that lead to the discovery of newly approved breast cancer therapy, KISQALI[®], and biologics platform for immuno-oncology. In addition, we will learn about nutrient sensing as new target for aging, the application of modeling and simulation for preclinical and clinical studies, as well as how best prepare the interaction with FDA for pre-IND and IND submission. Beyond these scientific topics, the first-hand experience in building a biotechnology company will also be presented.

These diverse sessions are carefully coordinated to accelerate attendees' understanding on topics of biotechnology and pharmaceutical research, industry-academia cooperation, and business development.

In this meeting, KASBP Fellowship Awards offered with the Sponsors will be presented to young scholars from graduate to post-doctoral levels who exhibit excellences in their research.

This symposium will also provide an opportunity for members to establish professional networks, and share information and experience in the pursuit of excellence in drug discovery R&D.

The symposium organizing committee is looking forward to meeting all members and friends associated with pharmaceutical and biotechnology industry as well as academia.

Symposium Schedule in Detail

June 1, 2018, Friday

Job Fair (Details will be available at www.kasbp.org)

2:00 pm ~ 5:30 pm Organizer: Jaha PARK & Suktae Choi

- Flexible arrangement is also possible during symposium when requested

Registration & Networking

5:30 pm ~ 6:30 pm Sahee KIM, RevHealth, LLC & Registration Team

Opening & Congratulatory Remarks and Dinner

6:30 pm ~ 7:30 pm Moderator: President Designated, Sean Kim, Blueprint Medicines

Opening Remark

KASBP President: Yun H. Choe, Lucas & Mercanti, LLP

Congratulatory Remarks

TBD

Prosperity Toast and Dinner

D I N N E R

Award Ceremony & Keynote Lecture

7:30 pm ~ 8:30 pm Keynote Lecture

Searching for rare mutations in the genome

Peter J. Park, Ph.D., Harvard Medical School, Cambridge, MA, USA

Featured Sponsor Presentation

8:30 pm ~ 9:00 pm TBD

Networking Program / Group Networking

9:00 pm ~ 10:30 pm 1st Vice President, K. Stephen Suh, Hackensack Meridian Health

Young Generation (YG) group Mentoring Program Launching

10:00 pm ~

June 2, 2018, SaturdayRegistration & Breakfast 7:30 am ~ 8:30 amOpening Remarks

8:30 am ~ 8:45 am Moderator: Executive Director, Peter Seongwon HONG, Regeneron

Session A KASBP-CT Chapter President, Sung Kwon KIM, Alexion

8:45 am ~ 10:15 am

- A-1: Success and challenges in therapeutic ADC development
Byong-Chul Lee, 23andMe
- A-2: The discovery of Kisqali® (ribociclib, LEE011), a CDK4/6 inhibitor for the treatment of breast cancer
Mooje Sung, Novartis
- A-3: Sponsor Talk 1

Coffee Break

10:15 am ~ 10:30 am

Session B KASBP-NJ Chapter President, Youngsun KIM, Adello Biologics

10:30 am ~ 11:30 am

- B-1: Quantitative Modeling & Simulation Approaches: Driving Critical Decisions from Research through Clinical Trials
Jennifer Park, Applied Biomath
- B-2: Early Stage Interaction with FDA: How to Prepare a Pre-IND meeting and an Initial IND
Haeyoung Ahn, Ahn Bio Consulting

Fellowship Award Ceremony Hyun-Hee Lee, Merck

11:30 am ~ 12:30 pm

Photo time

12:30 pm ~ 12:45 pm

Lunch & Poster Presentation

12:45 pm ~ 2:00 pm

Session C KASBP-Phila Chapter President, Kern Chang, Janssen

2:00 pm ~ 3:30 pm

- C-1: Successful building of game-changing biotech company with innovative science and business strategy
Sang Hoon Lee, ABL Bio
- C-2: Advances in CAR-T cell therapy
Paul Kwon, Novartis
- C-3: Nutrient sensing pathway as a therapeutic target for healthy aging
Sungwoo Kang, Navitor

Coffee Break

3:30 pm ~ 3:45 pm

Session D KASBP-SF Chapter President: Sunghoon MA, Exelixis

3:45 pm ~ 4:30 pm

- D-1: Sponsor Presentation 2
- D-2: Sponsor Presentation 3

Scientific Session Closing Remarks

4:30 pm ~ 4:45 pm KASBP President: Yun H. Choe, Lucas & Mercanti, LLP

Break

4:45 pm ~ 5:30 pm

Dinner & Discussion – Let's License Out

6:00 pm ~ 9:30 pm – Moderator: KASBP-DC Chapter President, Sang-Tae PARK, MacroGen Clinical Laboratory

Symposium Closing Remarks

9:30 pm ~ 9:45 pm KASBP President: Yun H. Choe, Lucas & Mercanti, LLP
