

Job Posting: Manager/Sr. manager (PhD), Gene Therapy (Cambridge, MA, USA)

Dong-A ST is one of leading Korean Biopharmaceuticals with a 90-year heritage, and has opened its US branch, Open Innovation Center in Cambridge, MA, USA in Jan. 2023.

Dong-A America Corp. (Dong-A ST USA) is searching for a manager/sr. manager who will support a team leader and head of Open Innovation Center, Dong-A ST USA. This position is based in Cambridge, MA and will report to team leader.

Key responsibilities include, but not limited to:

- Perform research and analysis of the assets and technologies across the therapeutic areas with a primary focus on GCT and develop relevant database/global market intelligence for sharing across the R&D team and presenting to management as needed.
- Provide support for project management, progress reports/plans as requested.
- Support leadership team in building relationship with potential business partners/other key external parties, and relevant BD activities.
- Attend the scientific meetings, where applicable, as a representative of Dong-A ST.
- Be the primary contact for administrative works related to Boston office/operation/marketing as needed, and flexible for new and additional duties as the organization grow.

Qualifications (required):

- PhD in Genetics, Biology or related discipline
- 1-5 years of experience in biotech or pharmaceutical industry.
- Fluent in English
- Excellent critical thinking, problem solving, and interpersonal communication skills

Application: Resume with 2 references specified, send to ryu@donga.co.kr

Salary & Benefits: Industry competitive packages and open for discussion

